PRIVACY POLICY

InPartnership Funding's approach extends to protecting the privacy of all people we work with. We have adopted the handling requirements set down in the Privacy Act including the National Privacy Principles.

Our Privacy Policy updates can be viewed by way of our website at www.ipf.com.au.

What personal information we may collect

We may collect and store securely your personal information which may include:

- name and contact details
- loan approval information which includes information about your financial circumstances, credit worthiness using credit checks to verify information, exercising a right of IPF, enforcement of an obligation of the Borrower, and promoting our services to the Borrower.

Generally, we collect this from you or through an Intermediary acting as our agent. This may involve supplying information to our bankers and/or their appointed agents (who are also bound by the National Privacy Principles) for the purpose of funding your loan.

Why we collect it

Most of the information required by us is to effectively assess your funding application and for the purpose of approving or declining the loan application.

Keeping it secure

We take all reasonable steps to keep the information we collect, use, store or disclose in a secure environment that is accessed only by persons authorised by our people. We will provide an internal secure environment but cannot guarantee against all technology risks in the electronic storage and transmission of information particularly via the internet.

Contacting us for access, updates or corrections

Requests for access to your personal information for the purposes of alteration, completion or accuracy needs to be in writing by emailing us at info@ipf.com.au. We will acknowledge and respond to your written request with 14 days.
